THESE ARE THE MOMENTS...

2002
Windsor Locks High School
Windsor Locks, CT 06096

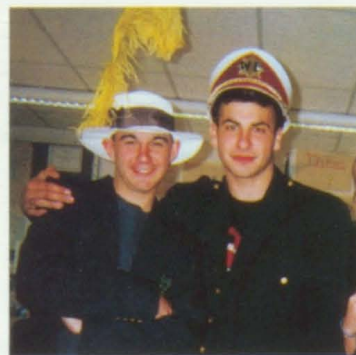

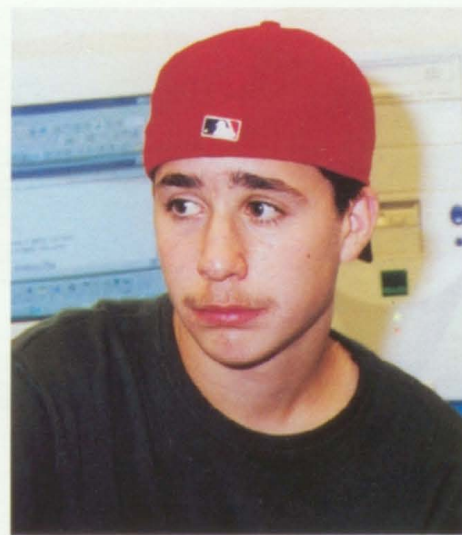

"I much rather prefer the dreams of the future than the history of the past." Thomas Jefferson

Throughout his four years at Windsor Locks High School, Mr. Snyder has played an instrumental role in each of our lives.

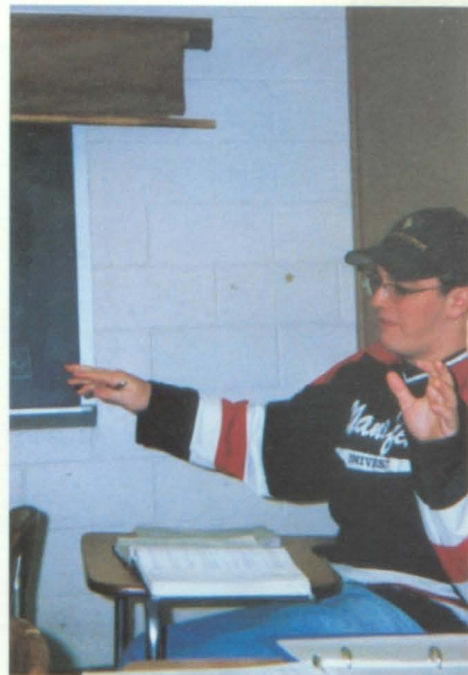

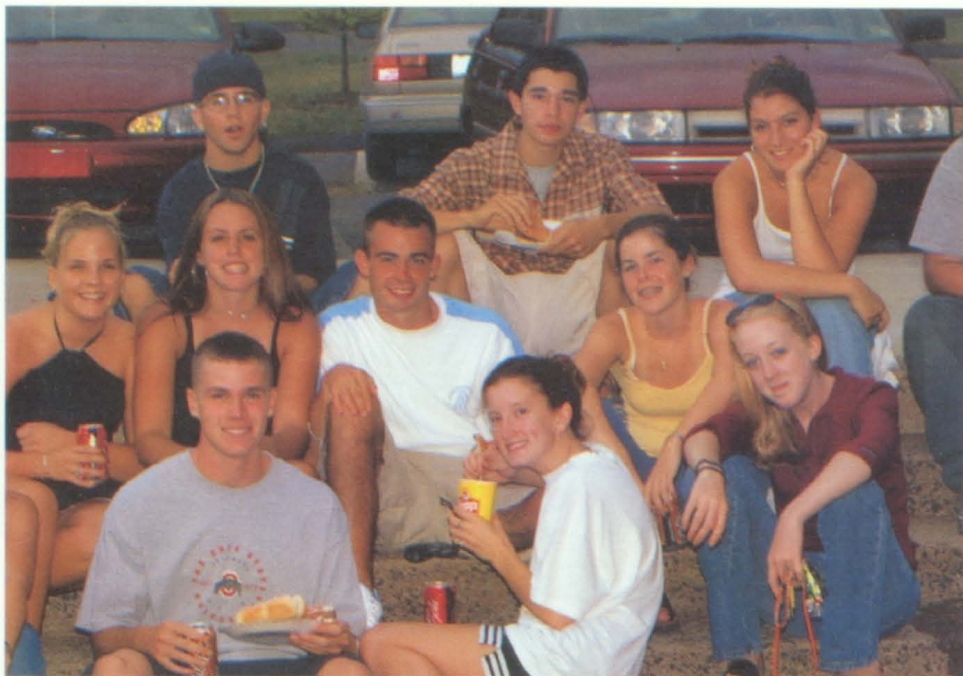

Whether it is in the halls, where he promptly greets us with a high-five, or in the classroom where he keeps us laughing and learning at the same time, Mr. Snyder knows how to keep our education interesting. He has taught us beyond his subject matter by teaching us about life. We know that he will be there for us whenever we need his support or guidance.

Every day Mr. Snyder shares with us his love for social studies, and through him we love it, too. More than just an outstanding teacher, he is a true friend.

It has been our honor to spend our high school careers with you, Mr. Snyder. On behalf of the Class of 2002, it is with the utmost regard that we dedicate our yearbook to you.

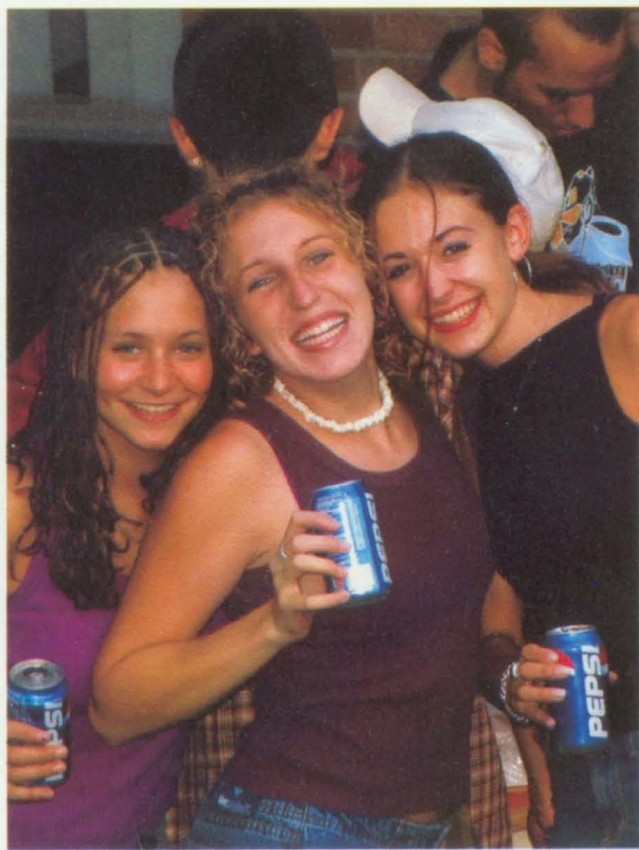

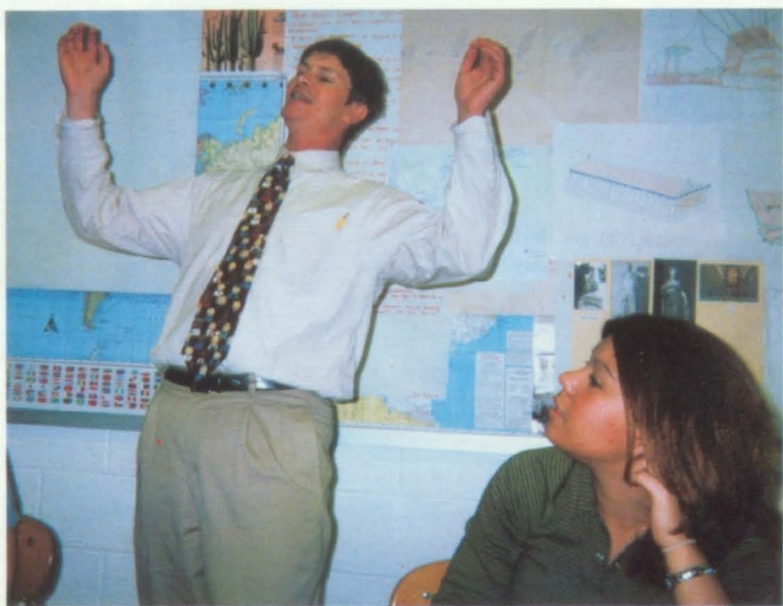

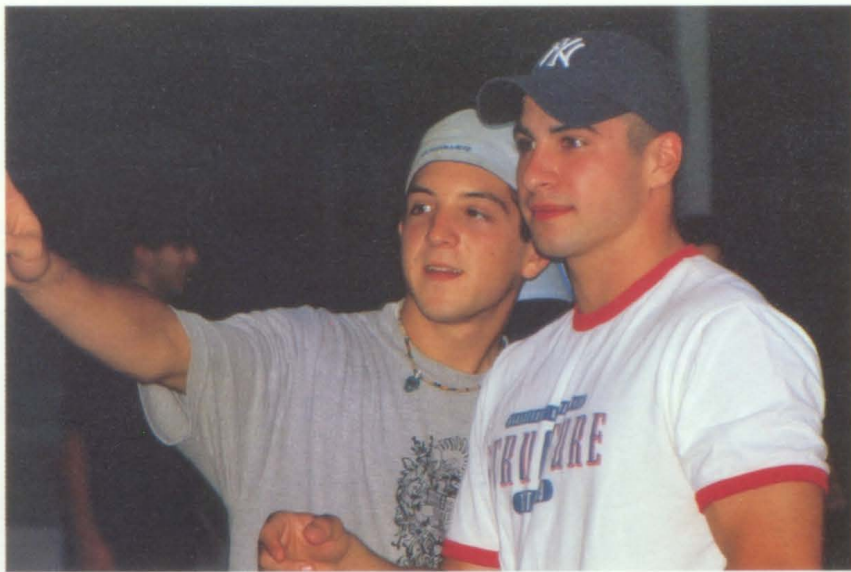

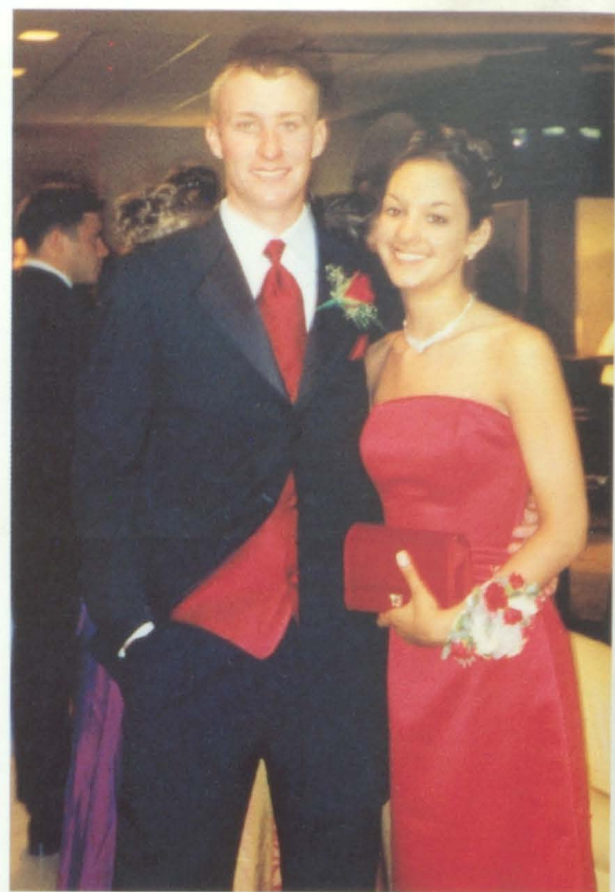

There were moments during the past four years that we despised as we were living them. We complained every day, but when we look back, high school really wasn't that bad. We experienced the good and the bad, winning and losing, laughing and crying...although it wasn't those moments that defined us. It was the people who were there through it all that are important to our memories. As we grew up together, we made those once in a lifetime friends that we only had a chance to make once in a lifetime. For them and us, These Are The Moments...

I could not ask for more than this time together, I could not ask for more than this time with you.

And every prayer has been answered, Every dream I've had's come true, Right here in this...

THE TIMES WE WERE...

All in the golden afternoon
 Full leisurely we glide,
 For both our oars with little skill
 By little arms are plied
 While little hands make vain pretense
 Our wanderings to guide.
 - Lewis Carroll

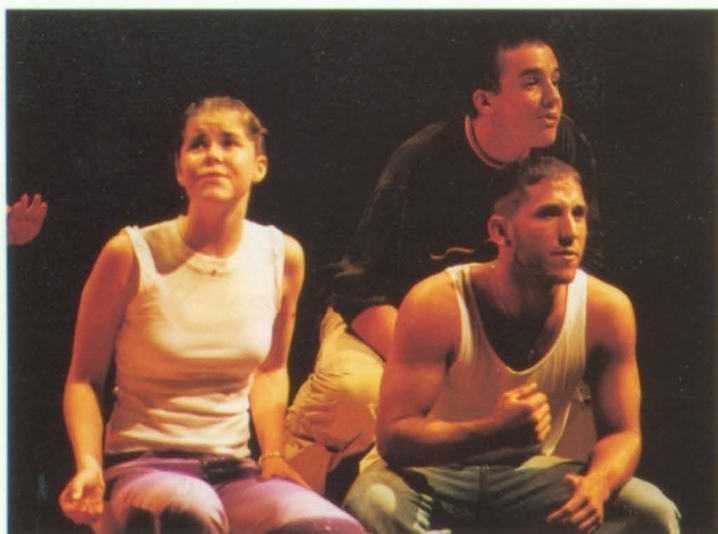

moment Is right where I'm meant to be, Here with you here with me. These are the moments

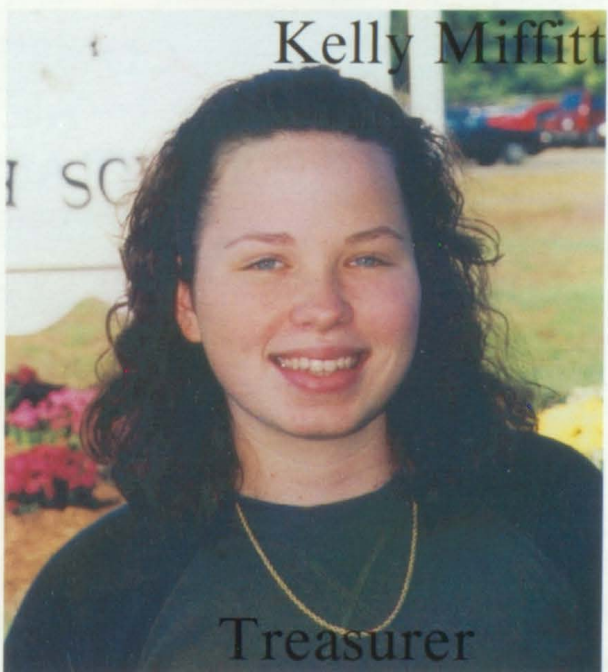

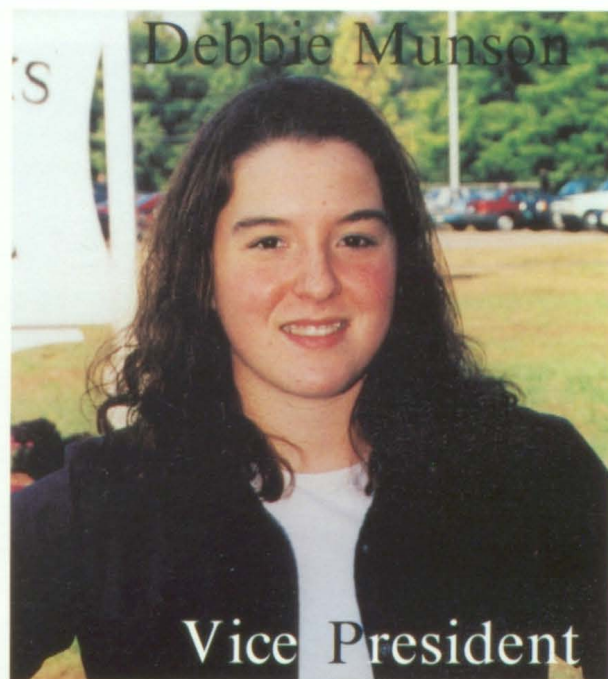

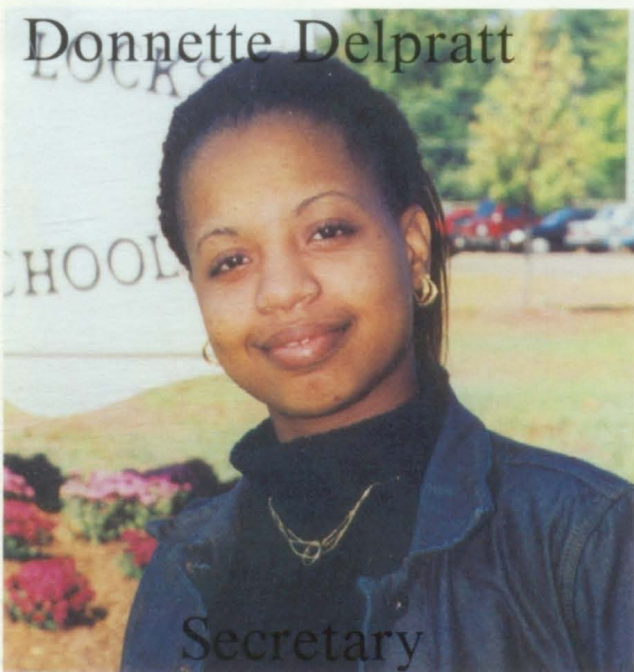

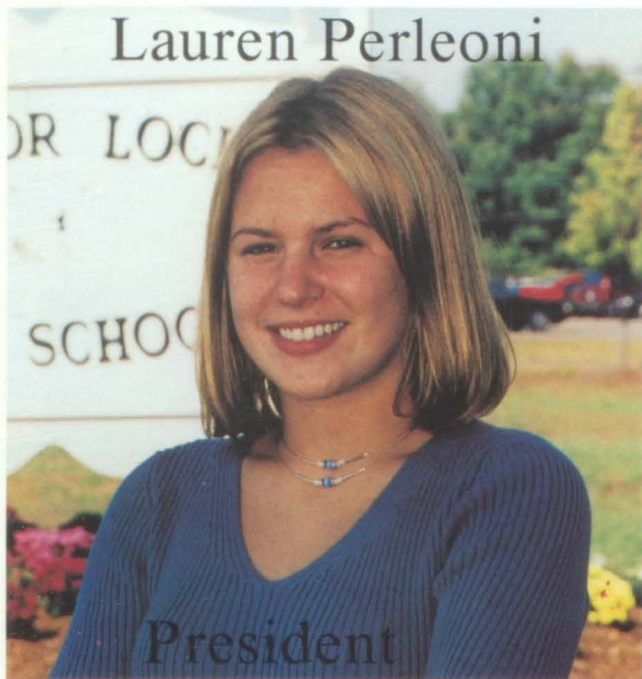

"I have more memories than if I were a thousand years old." - Charles Baudelaire

I thank God that I'm alive, and these are the moments I'll remember all my life.

I've found all I've waited for, And I could not ask for more...

These are the Times

Karen Malloy

These are the times that mean so much,
When life is difficult, you want an understanding touch.

These are the times when a friend is all you need,
When they would give you the world without intentional greed.

These are the times when popularity gets old,
Aren't we in this together? That's what I was told.

These are the times teachers are the joke,
It's when cops' biggest concern is which kid smokes.
These are the times when mistakes finally make us learn,
And we want out of the small town, what a yearn.

These are the times of an after school job,
Real work? That's too much of a mob.

These are the times we're expected to sin,
Dating is becoming the game of "lose or win."

These are the times music is part of the soul,
Being with your sweetheart is your major role.

These are the times when we love to party,
And peer pressure is common, even with the class smarty.

These are the times we just sit and laugh,
Having someone to make you smile is so special to have.

These are the times when most parents snoop,
Only out of love, but we think it's cruel.

These are the times of prom and ball dances,
It's when teens are in and out of romances.

These are the times when pizza is the best snack,
Or if you've done something stupid, friends have your back.

These are the times nothing should be a regret,
These times were the best, and we will never forget.

NICK'S

SUCH IS LIFE

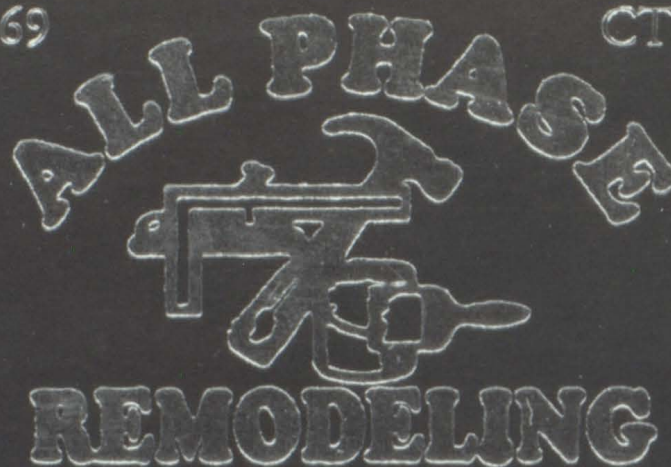

Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. When he is little, the big girls kiss him and when he is big, the little girls kiss him. If he makes a lot of money, he is dishonest. If he is poor, he is a bad manager. If he needs credit, he can't get it. If he is rich, everyone wants to do something for him. If he is religious, he is hypocrite. If he doesn't go to church, he is a hardened sinner. If he gives to charity, it is for show; if he doesn't he is stingy cuss. If he is affectionate, he is a soft specimen. If he doesn't care for everyone, he is cold-hearted. If he dies young, there was a great future before him; if he lives to a ripe old age, he is an old fogey. If he saves his money, he is a grifter. If he hasn't got it, he is a bum. So what the H...J's the use?

... But don't worry - 99 years later it won't make any difference. So forget it all and come to NICK'S PLACE.

And now you stand before us,
With hopes, with dreams, with tears,
Remember those who stand with you,
The faces of your peers.

For I stood just where you stand,
Lord, twenty-two short years!
Eight classmates have since left this life,
The thought brings me to tears.

As you pursue the journey,
Though often you're alone,
Good comfort comes along your path,
From the faces of those you've known.

I admire everyone in my family, but the best person is my Grandma.
I like this person because she lets me stay overnight, sometimes on weekends.
My Grandma is always very kind and enjoyable to be around.

But the best of all, I like her hugs.

For every road that seems to end, A new road beckons far.
For every door in life we close, A new door stands ajar.
For every star that starts to fade, A new one starts to shine.
For every dream that's out of reach, Declare, "That dream is mine."
So forge that road with courage, open a new door everyday.
Reach for your star, dream your dream,
and success will come your way.

When I first met you, you came across as a nice person, someone who would be cool to hang out with. But never did I know you'd be someone with so much love to give. You've opened my eyes and showed me what to look forward to in life. I know one thing I am looking forward to, and that is you. You are smart, talented, and you'll reach far, and I will be there every step of the way. You have shown me happiness and never did you give up on me. Never did I think being loved by you could be one of the most exciting, happiest, and greatest things in my life. I cannot thank you enough for being there for me. All my love, Alberto C. Peart

As you embark on a new aspect of life's journey hold fast your commitment to honesty, integrity, and equality. Cherish your high moral fiber; your unwavering standards of right and wrong are exemplary. Ebb and flow with the tides of change but stand fast your course of integrity.

Good luck to you and your class, as you remember Windsor Locks is but one grain of sand on the beach of life.

OF YOU!

MOM, DAD, & GRANDMA

"...first time ever I saw your face..."
 From the moment you were born, you became the focal point of my existence. Your smile was the sunshine in my heart. Your happiness was the only treasure I sought. And so you began the great paradox of parenthood. For when your tiny hand touched mine, I knew that I had been chosen to nurture you, love you, and then give you the strength to let go. Letting go is not easy. But I look at you now---a beautiful young adult, strong in your convictions and determined to face life on your own terms---and I still feel my heart swell with pride and joy.

My dreams for your life might not always be the same as the ones you seek, but one thing remains the same: your happiness will always be the greatest treasure. I know now that the true miracle of the first touch lies in one simple truth: even though your hand may slip away from mine, we will hold each other in our hearts forever.

I am so proud of all you have accomplished, and who you have become.

With all my deepest love,
 Mom

Well my daughter here you are all grown up and ready to take on the world. It's hard to believe you're already 18 years old and now preparing for college. I know as your father that you're more ready for this than I am. Not that I have doubts of your capabilities and determination, it's my own selfish struggles facing the facts that you're ready to fly on your own and knowing how much your daily presence will be missed. Jessica, throughout the years you have made me consistently proud to be your father. You have displayed a level of personal integrity, initiative, and responsibility at your age is truly impressive. I know these qualities will serve you well in all that you do as you move towards this more independent chapter of life. I have confidence that your skills and ambition will allow you to achieve your goals and dreams. Although intense, these will probably be some of the most rewarding and enjoyable times of your life. Most importantly I wish you happiness and may the love and support of your family give you comfort when you need it. You're a beautiful and special lady Jessica and I've been very fortunate to be your father.

All my love,
 Dad

Jessica,
 It's time for you to go into the big world: parties, new friends, and college. Your going to college will never mean I'll forget you. I'll miss you greatly, and I know you'll achieve success and do well in school!

Love,
 Ashely

Jessica

You came into my life, and you became a special part of our new life as easily as if you had always been with us. Having you as a part of our family has been a privilege (and a party). I have grown to love and respect you for who you are, and I know that you will be successful at whatever you do. Good luck Jessica, and please know that wherever you go, my love will always be with you.

Charlie

Jessica,

Paul you grew up too fast,
Just yesterday you were my blond haired baby running and playing. I remember before you were born thinking how can a parent be able to give equal love to another child, It was not difficult, It was love at first sight. Thank you for the wonderful memories and just being you.
Remember when you told me you weren't a singing, dancing kind of kid, but you did it anyway and you did it very well. I love to be at all your sporting events you make me proud. I'll miss you but will not hold you back; you know where home is and how much I love you.
MOM

Paul,

I can't believe you're a senior. You've grown so much and so fast. Success has been granted to you at Everything you try because of your talent, determination and hard work.
Through everything you've always kept your wonderful smile and great attitude about life. With these attitudes I hardly have to say Good Luck in college because there is no doubt that you will succeed in everything that life throws you.
I am so proud of you.
Congratulations!
Love always, your sister, Heidi

To the bestest brother in the world! Good luck. (I can I have your stereo when you go to college)
we all know your gonna miss me and we all know your gonna be faster than the flash!
I'll miss you

KATIE AND KENNY

IT'S SO HARD TO BELIEVE THAT 18 YEARS HAVE PASSED ALREADY. THEY WERE WONDERFUL, BUSY, FUN~FILLED YEARS. WE ARE SO PROUD OF BOTH OF YOU.

WE KNOW THAT YOU WILL SUCCEED IN ALL YOUR FUTURE ENDEAVORS AND WE WILL BE WITH YOU ALL THE WAY. WHAT WILL WE DO WITHOUT YOU NEXT YEAR?

LOVE YOU SO MUCH!!! MOM AND DAD

To Jeanie, (a.k.a...Jeanie Banini, "Gina")

Getting to know you over the past two years has been some of the most fun I have had here at WLHS!

Seeing life through a young girl's eyes again is at times fun but very scary!

Jeanie, you have your whole world ahead of you and that is SO exciting! NEVER give up on your dreams, ALWAYS know that I am here for you AND...

I BELIEVE IN YOU!
Love,

Mrs. Fuerst (a.k.a. "Mama Chris")

I BELIEVE IN YOU

When the world pulls you down,
when you're feeling low,
when nothing seems right,
I want you to know...

I BELIEVE IN YOU!

I believe in your ability to turn things around to get yourself up
when you hit the ground.

I believe in your capacity for giving and sharing,
for kindness and good,
for loving and caring.

I believe in your depth,
in your color and hue,
With all of my heart,
I believe in YOU!

Dear Ryan,

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments! When you were little, we thought your competitiveness would get the best of you. Instead, you made that one of your best assets. You have always strived to be your best. You are a scholar and an athlete, and we have had so much fun watching you compete and grow into an outstanding young man. You are a winner!

You are a wonderful brother, thank you for your patience, understanding, compassion, and your unconditional love. You were always there to help me if Mom and Dad were too busy, or not available. It was always fun watching you and your teams in sports or going to competitions to watch Power Company and Vocal Motion. I wish you luck in college and beyond, and always keep in touch.

Your spirituality is unfaltering and your faith strong. We are comforted by your willingness to have religious pride. We are going to miss you, but we realize that the time has come for you to spread your wings and fly away. You are ready for the challenges of your future.

We Love You and God Bless You,

Mom, Dad, Kate, Rudy & Walker

Kristen, Kelly, and Francis

The Cheerleaders

Carly,

You have finished one part of your life and beginning another. We are so proud of you.
 Never lose your vitality and enthusiasm for life.
 Keep up the good work in college. Work hard, have fun. Don't forget that through hard work and perseverance comes true satisfaction, happiness and knowing you've done your best.

Love

Dad, Eric, Gram, & Gramp

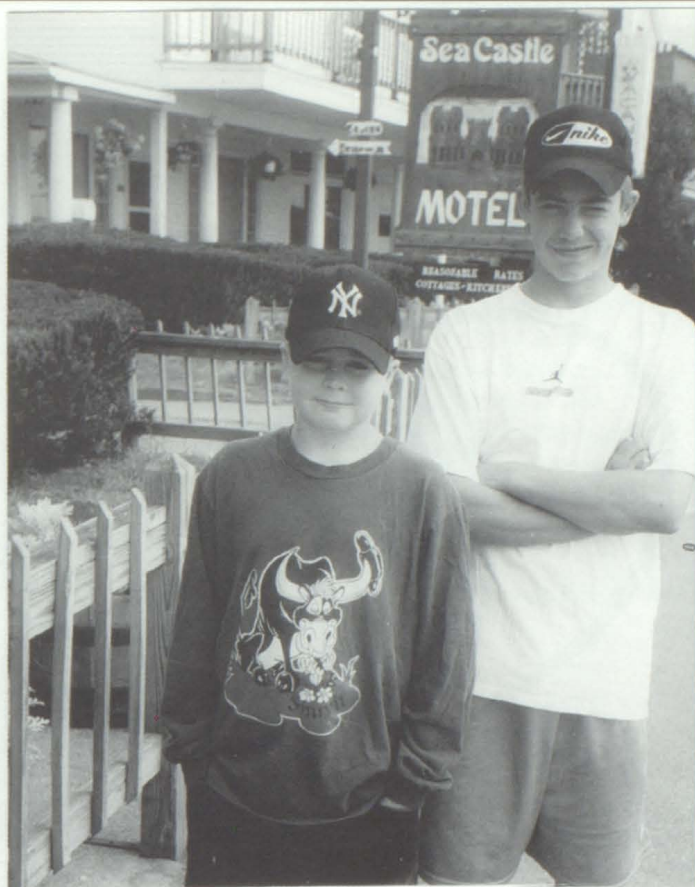

Jennifer,

Almost 19 years ago they only gave you 72 hours to live, boy did you prove them wrong. That was scary. I can remember your very first day of school and how difficult that was for both of us. Here it is your last days of school and it's just as difficult as the first day.
 You're not my baby anymore, you're a young woman getting ready to take on the real world, time to let you go. Sometimes you think that you need to be perfect, that you cannot make mistakes. At these times you put so much pressure on yourself. I wish that you would realize that you are a human being-like everyone else capable of reaching great potential, so please just do your best and realize that this is enough. Don't compare yourself to anyone. Be happy to be the wonderful, unique, very special person that you are...

Jennifer good luck in whatever you do.
 We love you and we are very proud of you.
 Mom & Step-dad

p.s. your grandmother and dad would be very proud of you too.

Through life, there will be challenges to be met and obstacles to overcome. As you've grown through the years, you have realized that you will always be there for each other, as I will be for both of you.

Congratulations with all my love from a very proud Dad!

"A dream is a wish the heart makes"...
Jennifer, you have filled our hearts with love and joy. With our full hearts, we hope "the dreams that you wish will come true."

*With all our love,
Mom, Dad, Bobby, Tommy, Peter, and Kari*

CONGRATULATIONS, DANIELLE!

We've seen you grow from a "Peanut" to a treeclimbing toddler to a skinny little league baseball player (Is that a girl on that pitcher's mound?!) to a purpose-driven young woman passionate about what she believes and pursues. We are so proud of you.

Megan,

We've watched you grow into the remarkable young woman you are today. You've handled yourself with courage and style throughout your school years. As long as you never change and have that same determination, you will always accomplish your goals. Your energy and zest for life is an inspiration to those who know you. We are so very proud of you and all you have accomplished. Keep smiling, have faith and all your dreams will come true. We love you and will always be here for you. Congratulations and best of luck!

All our love, Mom & Dad

You have never been an attention-seeker, but we feel as though your time has come. You have always walked with your head held high because when you have done right, nobody can ever take that away from you. You have handled so many situations with maturity beyond your years, which makes us even more proud of you. You have given so many people joy and laughter... you're a wonderful person. So continue your life in the same pattern and you will have a very successful and happy life. Loads of luck and best wishes in the years to come.

Our love always....

Meg, Good luck with everything you do from now until forever. I'm really glad I met you and have become your friend. Don't tell anybody but most of the time my away message is on, I'm actually right there online. I only come back for important people. I started doing that right after I met you. I look forward to seeing you. Best wishes and we'll hang out a lot over the summer.

Love, Dev

Who will it be? Inquiring minds want to know! Best of luck, Megan!

Megan,

I will always be that friend over the hill. Somehow in this crazy world we found each other. It is very rare that one catches a decent fish in this crazy world but you are the one fish I will never throw back. When you need a shoulder to cry on or someone just to watch tv with, I'm the man for the job. I will always be that friend over the hill.

Lots of Love, David

Where has the time gone? From a baby to a young lady in a blink of an eye. It's been hard to let you grow up and even harder to let you go. You have matured so fast. You're a happy person, well liked, with a great sense of humor. Your intelligence and sensitivity are your talents. You can be anything you want in life. Your dreams are yours to have and fulfill. Our only prayer to God has been the same... That you will be happy in your life. Only you can choose your destiny. Your life will be what you make of it. With your beauty, intelligence, and caring for life, you can stay at the top of the world.
We wish you success and happiness wherever you go and whatever you do. And we will always love you!

Some Reminders from the Family that Loves You

Remember always...
 ...that for all your strength,
 there is much that remains far beyond your control,
 ...that you are but a spoke in a magnificent wheel that eternally rotates, but you are never forgotten and never replaced.
 ...that for each loss in the world,
 there is yet something to be gained...
 or someone.
 Remember always...
 ...that you have much to forgive,
 much to achieve,
 much to heal,
 and much to mend,
 ...that these are the things that will make you strong, happy, fulfilled,
 and complete.
 ...that you are loved,
 wholly and forever,
 and it is that force which you may draw upon at any time
 and for any duration,
 ...that all of this is truth
 because we are your family and we will be here for you.

Janice

Girl, you have no idea how much love I have for you. Never have I found a friend who has impacted my life as much as you have. I know that I have not always been the type of friend that you deserve but I am glad that you still stuck by my side in the end. There are so many memories, Mr. Widmar's class, Cream, Hartford, Seduction, tatoo's, Foxwood's, sneaking, Boys, Girls, partying, running away, airport talks, etc...I would never be able to have that much fun with anyone else. I'm going to college and I know you are about to do your own thing because you have been doing it all along but I wish the best for you. You will always stay with me in my heart no matter what our future has in store for us. Love, Crystal

KAM

You are my little side-kick. We have really gone to deep ends for each other. I have a lot of love for you and I want you to know that. We haven't been that close since I left school in January, but there is not a day that goes by when I do not think about you and all of the things that we have been through. I always will stand by you in whatever you decide to do in life. I believe that you have a lot to offer to the world so do not screw it up by thinking any differently. Our end is coming near but that does not mean goodbye. I'll never forget all that you have helped me through and our friendship that is more valuable to me then gold. Your friend always,
Crystal

I Crystal Vancour, would like to thank Mr. Greene, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Snyder, Mr. Morhardt, & Mr. Czarnecki for making this year's yearbook fun and interesting. I would also like to thank Mr. Lambert, Mrs. Trosky, Mr. Tedone, Mr. Hill, Mr. Snyder, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. J, and Mrs. Brown for helping me, each in different ways, so I was able to make it through high school.

I would like to thank Crystal and Keon for their wonderful ideas and diligence in making this yearbook. The 2002 yearbook would not exist if not for the many hours of work that Crystal and Keon have put into it. Thanks also to Leanne, Melissa, and the rest of this year's staff for their contributions to the successful completion of the 2002

Herald.
Mr. Greene

Jessica,

I do not even know where to begin. We have been through it all. Laughter, tears, worries, fears, loving, & even hatred. What was made back in the fourth grade has grown to be one of the best things that has ever happened in my life. You have stuck with me til the end and that is more than I can say for anyone else. It is time for the both of us to move on, grow into the person we have become, but please remember that no matter how miles apart we are our friendship will never die from within.

Good Luck!!
From, Crystal

KEON,

THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH FOR BECOMING A VERY HELPFUL HAND IN THIS YEAR'S YEARBOOK. YOU DESERVE ALL THE CREDIT THAT YOU RECIEVE. I AM GLAD I WAS GIVEN THE CHANCH TO GET TO CONTINUE OUR FRIENDSHIP THAT STARTED BACK WHEN WE WERE LITTLE. IT WAS SUCH A PLEASURE TO SHARE THE EXPIERENCE IN MAKING THE YEARBOOK. GOOD LUCK IN EVERYTHING THAT YOU DECIDE TO DO. FOLLOW ALL YOUR DREAMS NO MATTER WHAT STANDS IN THE WAY.

"I didn't ask for it to be over, but then again
I didn't ask for it to begin.
For that's the way it is with life
As some of the most beautiful days
Come completely by chance
But even the most beautiful days
Eventually have their sunset."

Editors' Notes...

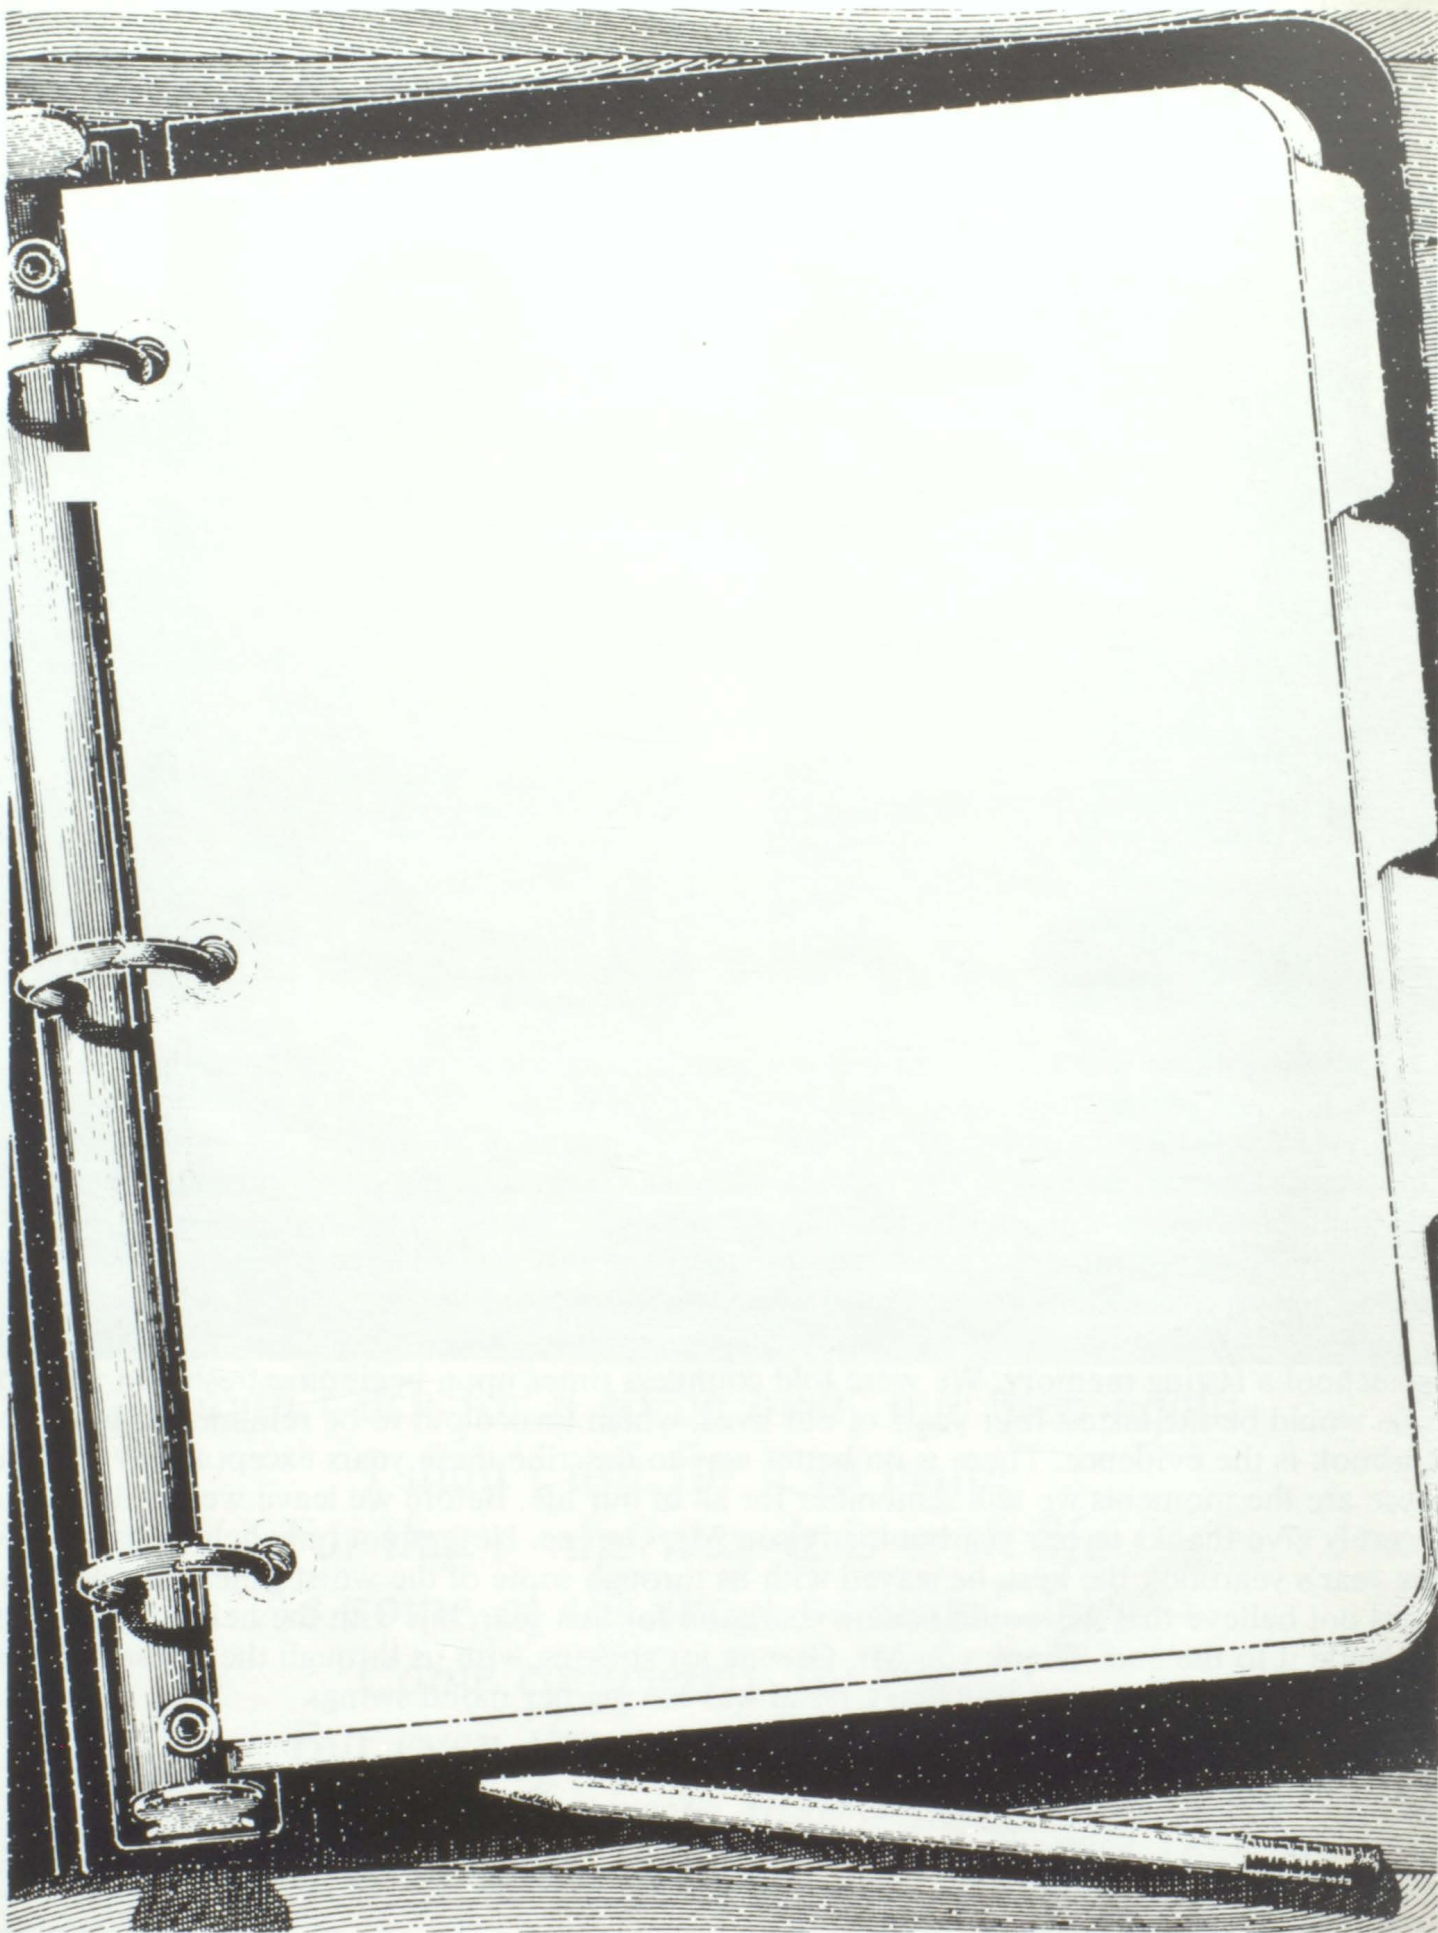

Picking a theme for the Herald was not an easy task. How were we supposed to describe some of the best years of our lives? Edwin McCain put it best in his ballad when he said, "These are the Moments I'll Remember All My Life." And with this in mind the 2002 Herald was born.

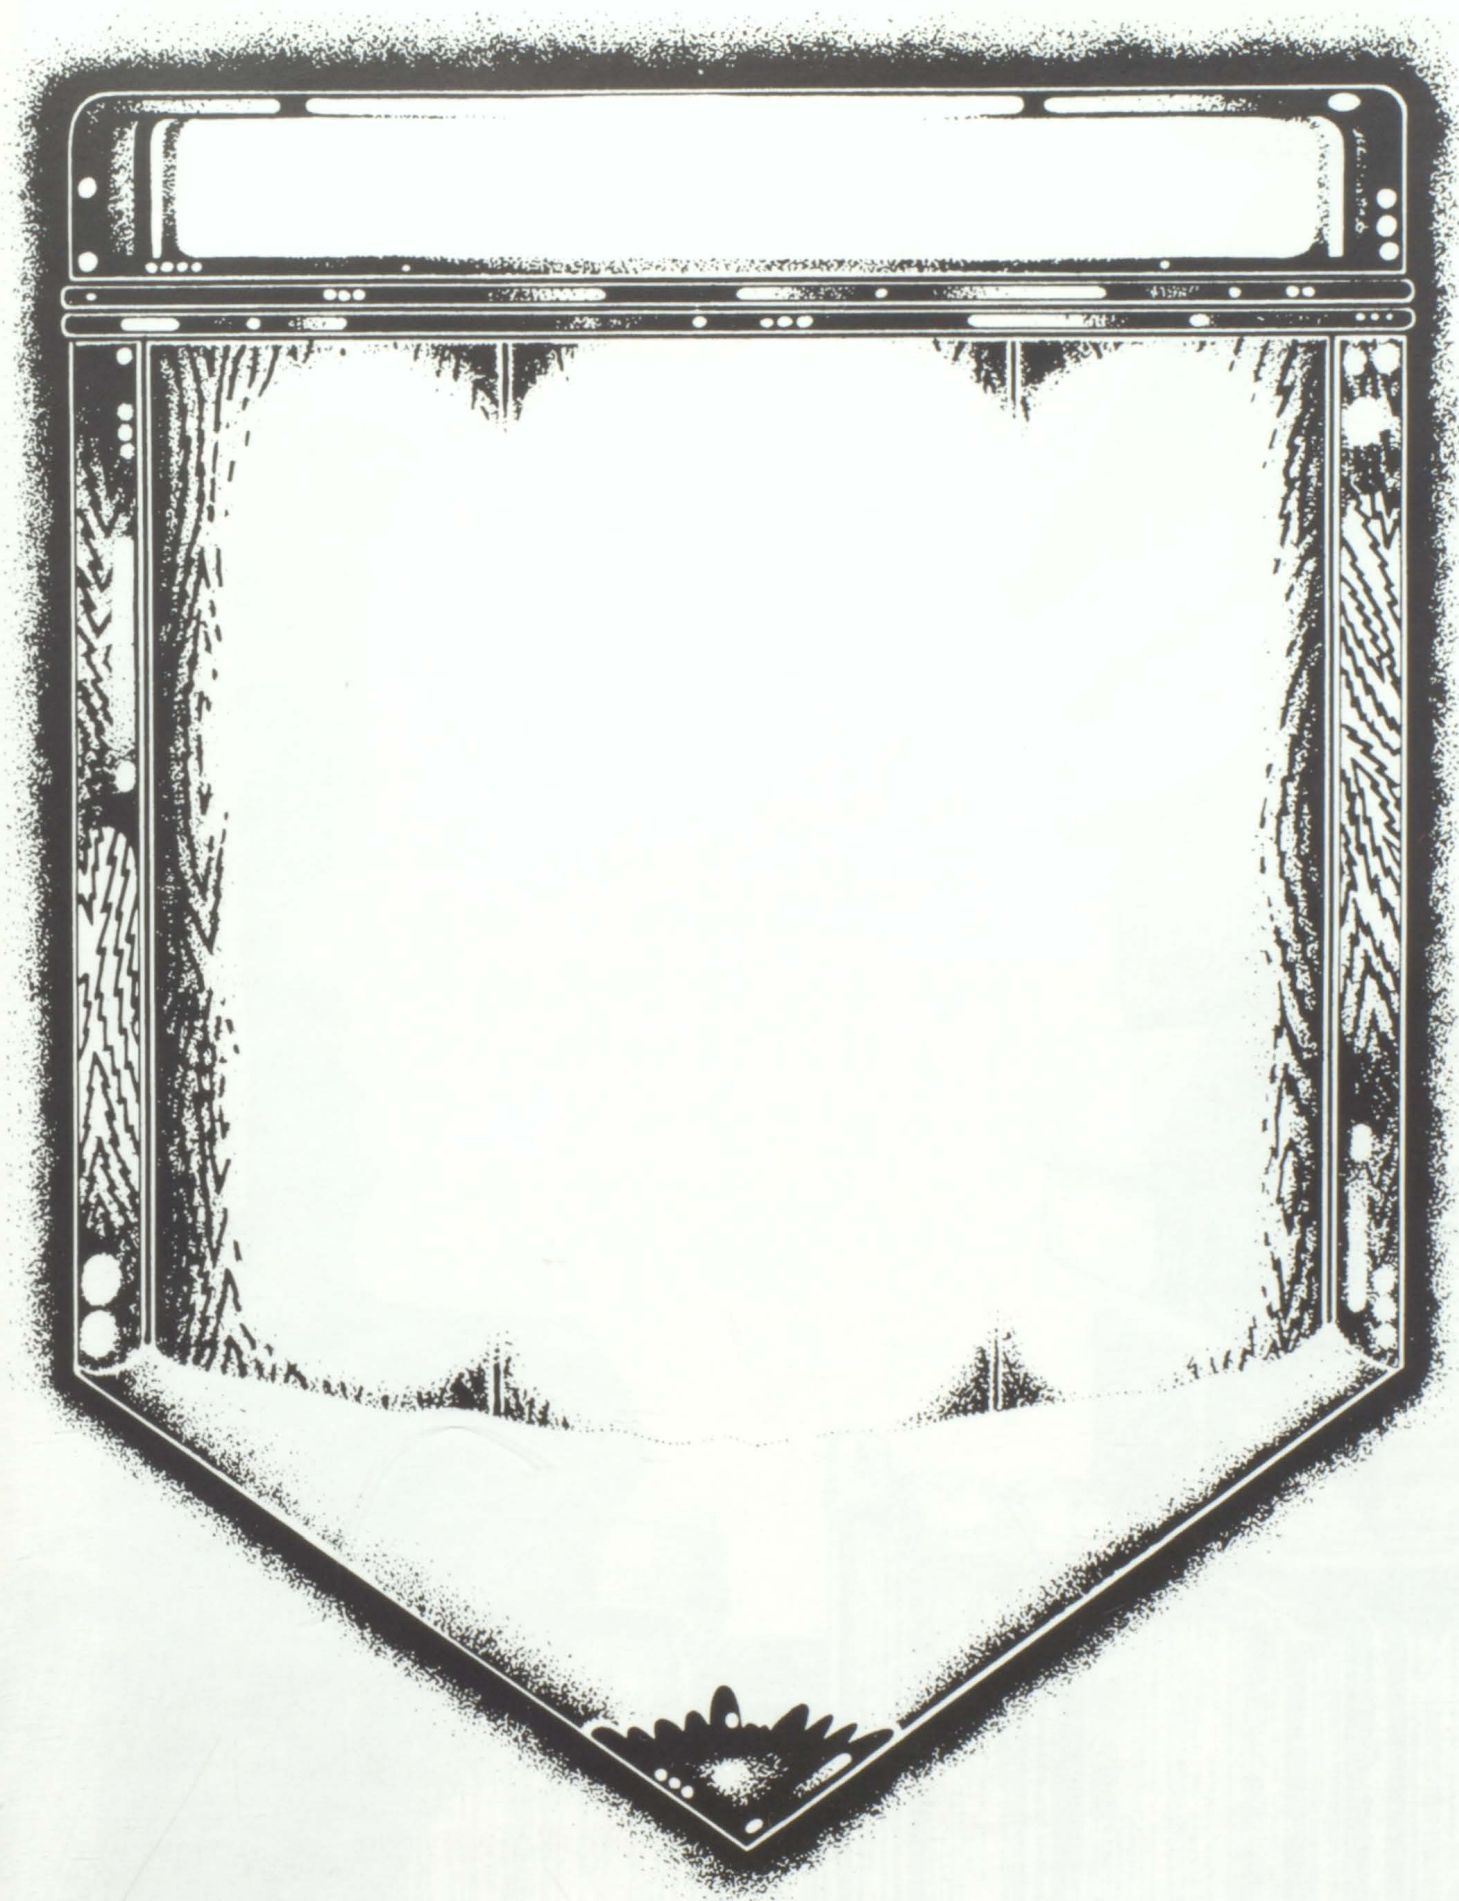

Countless hours and many afternoons were spent as we re-lived the many moments that made high school a permanent mark on our lives and slowly but surely through the stress, mistakes, & deadlines, all of our moments came together to create this year's Herald. We tried many new things this year, changed others, and used some traditions from the past. We now ask you to flip through the pages and re-live the smiles, laughs, good times, and even the bad times that made high school a lasting memory. We were told countless times upon beginning freshman year that these would be the fastest four years of our lives, which turned out to be remarkably true. This yearbook is the evidence. There is no better way to describe these years except to say that, yes these are the moments we will remember for all of our life. Before we leave we would like to sincerely give thanks to our yearbook advisor, Mr. Greene. He has not only helped us to make this year's yearbook the best, he stayed with us through some of the worst times. At one point we did not believe that we would have a yearbook for this year, but with the help of Mr. Greene we made it to the end. Thank you Mr. Greene for sticking with us through the worst of times, the best of times, and even when Crystal was having her mood swings.

An aerial, black and white photograph of a school campus. The central feature is a large, multi-story rectangular building with a flat roof, showing some wear and discoloration. To its right is a long, narrow parking lot with many spaces. In the foreground, there's a circular paved area and a smaller, rounded building. The background shows more campus buildings and a road with some trees. The overall tone is nostalgic and reflective.

These are the moments I'll remember all my life...
